Mr. Frederick C. Struss,
Claim Department,
A. C. Spalding & Bros.,

New York City.

Dear Sir:

I hereby wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 10th with reference to a mistake on your invoice of May 9th.

I believe if you will look over the enclosed bills you will see that the mistake was made on the part of your bookkeeping department. It is as follows:

One of our ball players Leon Day purchased a pair of $6.50 shoes and 1/2 pairs of ~~swant~~ socks, his bill should total $6.92, you have billed $9.92.

He, at the same time, got a pair of $9.50 shoes for Fred Wilson plus 19¢ tax and his bill should be $9.69, therefore, I think the mistake was made on the over charge on Day's shoes.

Trusting that this explanation will satisfactory straightened out this matter.

Yours very truly,
